

UPPSALA
UNIVERSITET

U-CARE Venue:

New and innovative data, data collection and recruitment

22-23 October 2018

Navet, SciLifeLab (entrance C11), BMC, Uppsala

Sign up at: <https://doodle.com/poll/ct3w76hxx6pfuviv>

22 October

- 12:00 Lunch
- 13:00 Welcome address, Louise von Essen, Programme director, U-CARE
- 13:10 Presentation of the program and the U-CARE Advisory Board, Erik Olsson, Chair of U-CARE Venue, U-CARE
- 13:30 Social media and peer-support as resources for coping with loss and bereavement, Ylva Hård Segerstad, Gothenburg University
- 14:00 New and Innovative ideas for design of and recruitment to clinical trials, Heather O'Mahen, University of Exeter, UK
- 14:30 Experiences of being a lived experience representative in research, 2 examples Lotta Heimersson and Börje Årnedal lived experience research partners U-CARE ParentsCan and the Swedish Heart- and Lung Association
- 15:00 Coffee
- 15:30 Discussion in 3 groups: (1) New and/or innovative data in research, (2) New and innovative designs and recruitment methods in research, (3) Public and patient involvement in research.
- 16:15-17:00 Summary of discussions and final comments from the U-CARE advisory board

23 October

- 9:00 One example of novel data and analysis in the U-CARE Heart study, John Wallert, PhD-student, U-CARE
- 9:30 Presentation: Recruitment to clinical trials in U-CARE: challenges and potential solutions, Joanne Woodford, PhD, U-CARE
- 10:00 Presentation: Public and patient involvement in U-CARE: An example from YoungCan "Of the population, for the population", Henrik Wiman, PhD-student, U-CARE
- 10:30 Coffee
- 11:00 Discussion in 3 groups: (1) New and/or innovative data in research, (2) New and/or innovative designs and recruitment methods in research, (3) Public and patient involvement in research.
- 11:30 Summary of discussions and final comments from the U-CARE advisory board
- 12:00-13:00 Lunch together